TRADITION TRANSCENDING TIME

2021-24
STRATEGIC PLAN

► Acknowledgments

The work in this strategic plan reflects the guidance of community and leadership over the past 10 years. This plan moves that strategic direction into action now and into the coming years. The plan will be updated as progress towards our vision is achieved.

► Message to Toquaht Citizens from the taayii

On behalf of your Executive, I am pleased to present our Nation's strategic plan.

I am grateful for the work of my father, late taayii ḥaʔwiił tiitskiisup (Bert Mack), my dear mother, late Lillian Mack, and all of those who have left before us to make life better for all of Toquaht. I acknowledge our masčim for the guidance and input you have provided over the years as we grow as individuals and as a community.

In 2011 we welcomed the effective date of our treaty and the year 2021 marks the tenth anniversary of such – very exciting. Since then, we have put into practice the new government regime and made thoughtful and steady progress to build up our community.

Our culture continues to guide us. Your Executive has committed to utilizing these four guiding principles as our foundation for decision making.

Guiding Principles

- q'aaʔaʔin c'awaak
- ʔuuʔaʔuk
- ʔiisaak

We acknowledge that not all of the work Toquaht does is described in this strategic plan. The day-to-day operations, land management activities, the stewardship of resources, and the program and service delivery provided by our hard-working staff continues. This strategic plan identifies our new strategic areas of focus – the new places we are moving toward as a Nation.

Strategic Priorities

1. Build masčim and Government Capacity
2. Build Infrastructure
3. Grow the Economy
4. Foster masčim and Community Well-being

I value each of you. I appreciate those who invest their time and energy to be involved in our Nation and invite those of you who we have yet to hear from to connect with any of our leaders and/or staff. Know you have a family, a home with Toquaht.

With respect,

Anne Mack
