PREAMBLE

A. Declaration of Toquaht Identity and Territorial Existence

We, the people of the Toquaht, by this Constitution, declare our unique identity as a Nation and claim our rightful place in Canadian society.

We have existed from time immemorial and have occupied and used the lands, waters and resources of our traditional territory, as set out in Schedule 1 to this Constitution, throughout history.

We draw our identity from our relationship to our lands and from our rich heritage, culture, language and our stories, myths and oral traditions.

We honour our ancestors and our elders and commit ourselves to the values that they preserved for us, values that provide us dignity and enhance our humanity.

As self-determining peoples, we accept the responsibilities inherent in governing ourselves and seek, with the assistance of Naas (the Creator) to govern with wisdom and respect for all people.

Through the act of governing, we assume the power to preserve our natural world and enhance our identity.

B. Declaration of Toquaht Rights and Values

From this historic foundation we, the Toquaht people, have adopted and shaped fundamental values that unite us, define us and upon which this Constitution is based.

These values include:

- (a) a belief in, and reverence for, the Creator,
- (b) honouring our ancestors,
- (c) respecting our elders,
- (d) abiding by an internal order based on our ḥaʔwiiḥ and our ḥaḥuʔi,
- (e) respecting our family and kinship systems,
- (f) our unique language, and
- (g) a respect for the land, air, water and environment which encompasses the ḥaḥuʔi of our ḥaʔwiiḥ.

As a distinct people, we possess certain fundamental and inalienable human rights, rights which have never been extinguished, ceded or surrendered. These include, without limitation:

- (a) the right to our traditional territory, including rights to water and beds of water,

- (b) the right to resources within our traditional territory,
- (c) the right to govern within our traditional territory,
- (d) the right to utilize and protect our language,
- (e) the right to practice, protect and enhance our culture,
- (f) the right to the wealth of our traditional territory and a sound economic foundation,
- (g) the right to protect our sacred and spiritual sites,
- (h) the right to protect our family and kinship systems, and
- (i) the right to define ourselves and the criteria for the identification of our citizens.

C. This Constitution

This Constitution and all powers and jurisdictions established in it, are made in accordance with and subject to the Maa-nulth Treaty.

CHAPTER 1 - INDIVIDUAL RIGHTS AND FREEDOMS OF TOQUAHT CITIZENS

- 1.1 An individual is entitled to be a Toquaht citizen if that individual:
- (a) is enrolled under the Maa-nulth Treaty;
 - (b) was registered on the Toquaht Indian Band List as of the day immediately preceding the Effective Date of the Maa-nulth Treaty;
 - (c) has been adopted as a child by an individual of Toquaht descent under Canadian law, the Maa-nulth Treaty or in accordance with Nuu-chah-nulth custom;
 - (d) is of Toquaht descent; or
 - (e) meets any additional criteria established under Toquaht citizenship laws.
- 1.1.1 For certainty, Toquaht citizenship does not, in itself, confer any treaty rights or benefits on an individual.
- 1.2 Every Toquaht citizen enjoys all of the individual rights and freedoms guaranteed under the Constitution of Canada and by the various instruments of human rights established in international law.
- 1.3 Subject to paragraph 1.2 and to such reasonable limits established by law as can be demonstrably justified in a free and democratic society, all Toquaht citizens are equal under this Constitution and, based on this equality and in accordance with Toquaht customary law, possess:
- (a) the right to participate in Toquaht political activities and elections, and to run for and hold elected office in accordance with Toquaht law;
 - (b) the right to be informed about Toquaht affairs;
 - (c) the right to be consulted regarding Toquaht affairs;
 - (d) the right to express opinions and views on Toquaht affairs;
 - (e) the right to equal employment opportunities within the Toquaht;
 - (f) the right to equal access to public services provided by the Toquaht;
 - (g) the right to a healthy life, environment and equal access to health care;
 - (h) the right to utilize the Nuu-chah-nulth language;
 - (i) the right to participate in Toquaht culture and traditions consistent with the established practices and customs;

- (j) the right to enter upon, remain on and leave Toquaht lands in accordance with this Constitution and Toquaht laws;
- (k) the freedom to pursue a livelihood within Toquaht lands;
- (l) the freedom to contribute to the progress and development of the Toquaht;
and
- (m) the freedom to achieve their fullest potential as individuals.

CHAPTER 2 - TOQUAHT GOVERNMENT STRUCTURE

- 2.1 The Toquaht government consists of a legislative branch, an executive branch and a People's Assembly.
- 2.2 Toquaht may, in accordance with the Maa-nulth Treaty and the amending provisions of this Constitution, establish a judicial branch of the Toquaht government.
- A. The Legislative Branch
- 2.3 All legislative powers assumed through this Constitution are vested in the Council.
- 2.4 The Council is composed of five members consisting of
- (a) three elected members of Council,
 - (b) the ḥa?wił (First Chief), and
 - (c) the Chaa-maa-taa (Second Chief).
- 2.5 The elected members of Council hold office for a term of four years.
- 2.6 The elected members of Council must be Toquaht citizens who are at least 18 years of age.
- 2.7 The times, places and manner of holding elections must be established by the Council in the Toquaht election law.
- 2.8 Upon an elected Council position becoming vacant, a by-election must be held within 30 days of the date the vacancy occurred.
- 2.9 The Council must, at the beginning of each term of office, select from amongst themselves a chairperson to be responsible for chairing meetings of the Council and of the People's Assembly and for ensuring that the decisions of the Council are implemented.
- 2.10 The chairperson of Council may vote in Council decisions, however, if such a vote results in a tie, the motion fails.
- 2.11 No Toquaht law has force and effect until that law has been passed by a majority of a quorum of the Council and is certified by the ḥa?wił.
- 2.12 Except for Toquaht customary laws, all Toquaht laws must be published and made available to Toquaht citizens within ten days of the law coming into effect.

B. The Executive Branch

- 2.13 The executive powers of the Toquaht government are vested in the chairperson of Council and any individual member of Council designated by a majority of the Council to hold a specific portfolio.
- 2.14 The Council may establish or dissolve executive portfolios at any time.
- 2.15 Each member of the Executive is directly accountable to the Council and must report to the Council on a regular basis or as requested by the Council.
- 2.16 Members of the Executive have the power and duty to oversee the enforcement of Toquaht laws, the management of Toquaht affairs, Toquaht financial administration and the operations of the Toquaht government within the areas of their respective portfolios and in accordance with Toquaht laws.
- 2.17 Upon and subject to the direction of the chairperson of Council, members of the Executive, within the areas of their respective portfolios, are responsible for representing the Toquaht in intergovernmental relations, including relations with other First Nations.
- 2.18 The ha?wıl of Toquaht, as primary spokesperson of the Toquaht government, has authority and responsibility, subject to direction from Council, for
- (a) representing the Toquaht government in relations with local, provincial and federal governments, other First Nations and indigenous organizations nationally and internationally,
 - (b) ensuring that the Toquaht citizens are fully informed on social, legal and political issues that affect Toquaht,
 - (c) developing and maintaining effective systems of communication with Toquaht citizens, third parties and other governments,
 - (d) protecting and enhancing Toquaht aboriginal and treaty rights, and
 - (e) promoting and protecting Toquaht values, culture, traditions and language.
- 2.18.1 The chairperson of Council, as chief executive of the Toquaht government, has authority and responsibility, subject to direction from Council, for
- (a) ensuring that the Toquaht Constitution and Toquaht laws and procedures are adhered to and enforced,
 - (b) developing and maintaining a sound Toquaht economy,
 - (c) the proper management and administration of the Toquaht government, and

- (d) those additional roles and responsibilities contemplated in this Constitution.
- 2.19 Council may designate a member of Council to assume the powers and duties of the chairperson of Council on an interim basis in the event that the chairperson of Council is, for whatever reason, unable to exercise the powers and perform the duties of that office.
- 2.20 Council may establish any public institution or body that it deems necessary to meet the duties of the Toquaht government or to protect or advance the interests of the Toquaht.

C. People's Assembly

- 2.21 The People's Assembly must be convened at a minimum of four times annually, one of which such meetings must be deemed to be the Toquaht annual general assembly.
- 2.22 The People's Assembly that is deemed to be the Toquaht annual general assembly must include in its agenda the annual Toquaht financial report, including remuneration paid to Council.
- 2.23 The chairperson of Council, in consultation with Council, may at any time call a special People's Assembly to address important Toquaht issues.
- 2.24 The chairperson of Council must convene the People's Assembly in accordance with procedures established by Council and as amended from time to time.
- 2.25 Subject to paragraph 2.26, every Toquaht citizen has the right to attend and participate in the People's Assembly.
- 2.26 Every Toquaht citizen that has attained the age of 18 has the right to vote on any resolution presented at the People's Assembly.
- 2.27 The People's Assembly may, by way of a resolution passed in accordance with a referendum law established by Council, recommend that Council hold a referendum on a specific issue.
- 2.28 [Repealed]
- 2.29 All resolutions passed by the People's Assembly must be considered and voted on by Council.

D. Committees

- 2.30 Council may establish standing or special committees to assist in the discharge of its powers and duties.
- 2.31 All committees may include any Toquaht citizen over the age of 18 and must include at least one member of Council.
- 2.32 All committee members, including committee members who are members of Council, have the right to vote in committee decisions.
- 2.33 Council must establish the terms of reference for each committee and must appoint all committee members in accordance with the respective terms of reference.
- 2.34 In appointing committee members, Council must attempt to ensure committee representation by Toquaht citizens residing on and off of Toquaht lands.
- 2.35 Committee membership and the procedures for selecting committee members must be made public.
- 2.36 The standing committees must include, but not be limited to:
